Armored Toyota HiLux

For a vehicle that gives its all, the Toyota HiLux is the choice for great versatility, excellent off-road capability, and discreet appearance. It is ideally suited for standard as well as off-road conditions where tactical driving is required. The HiLux blends in wherever it goes around the globe due to its popular commercial use. In addition, Toyota parts and service are universally available wherever the vehicle is, so you never have to worry about the reliability or dependability of your HiLux.

We armor the HiLux on a variety of platforms—gasoline or diesel powertrains, automatic or manual transmission, right hand drive or left hand drive. The Toyota HiLux is a vehicle designed to fit into any environment. Additionally, we offer many other features to make the HiLux suit your specific needs, including bed armor, spray-in bedliner, communications equipment, spare parts package, and more.
